

Sample Media Questions for: T.L. HIGLEY

Author of Pompeii: City on Fire

1. What inspired your book, Pompeii: City on Fire?
2. The two main characters in this book come from completely different walks of life. Tell us about them?
3. What was Pompeii like before it was destroyed by Mt. Vesuvius?
4. You traveled to Italy to research this book. What was the biggest surprise you learned about ancient Pompeii?
5. You brought your daughter with you along on this research trip. Why is it important to expose children to historically rich corners of the world?
6. Your author tagline is, “No Passport Required.” What are some of the regions you’ve written about in your novels and Seven Wonders series?
7. You’ve written about Egypt, and what is now modern-day Jordan. With these regions of the world currently dominating headlines, how can we use your books as teaching tools?
8. What fascinates you about the ancient world?
9. Where would you like to set a future novel?
10. Pompeii is set in 79 AD. What was early Christian culture like?

Pompeii: City on Fire (B&H Books, June 2011, $14.99, 978-143-366-857-9)

For more information, visit www.tlhigley.com. To schedule an interview with Higley, or to receive more information, please contact Tolly Moseley at tolly@prbythebook.com or 512-501-4399 x708. Visit our website: www.prbythebook.com